First Day of Class

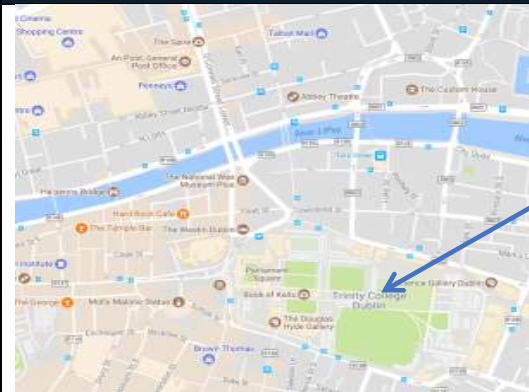

Please meet at trinity college front gates at 11:00am and an Eli Representative will meet you at 11:15am

Ask your Host family to tell you the best route to the city and back home.

On Sunday you will meet outside the Savoy Cinema, 17 O'Connell Street Upper, North City, Dublin 1 at 08:30

On your first day of Activities

- Please meet at Trinity College front gates at 09:50

On arrival in Dublin airport:

- If your flight arrival time changes for any reason please inform us on (dial 00 353 83 380 0558)
- If there is a delay, and we are not informed in time, you may miss your transfer
- An ELI representative will meet you in the airport arrivals hall

If you get lost:

- If you ever get lost, please call your group leader and the ELI Dublin Emergency phone.
- Please stay in the same place, close to something you can describe like a shop, street name, or business.
- Don't panic, we'll be able to find you. Don't speak to strangers unless they are a shop keeper, and do not go anywhere with someone unless ELI or your group leader gives you permission.

Important Safety Guidelines during your stay in Ireland:

Every student on the programme must:

- Always carry your mobile phone, fully charged, in credit, and switched on.
- Always carry the ELI Dublin emergency phone number.
- Never enter public parks without adult supervision.
- Never take short cuts – always stick to main roads you are familiar with.
- Never take large amounts of cash, or original ID or passport documents around with you.
- Avoid attracting attention by making noise in public spaces or talking to strangers.

Programme Rules:

If a student breaks any of the following rules they will face disciplinary action or expulsion:

- Consuming any alcoholic beverage or entering a pub unsupervised.
- Taking any type of illegal drug or un-prescribed medicine; or being around people who are.
- Breaking curfew or disobeying ELI Dublin staff members.
- Being absent from school without permission.
- Shop lifting or breaking any law.
- Travelling outside your residential area without the permission of ELI Dublin and your parents/guardian.
- Any acts which might cause injury to someone or damage to someone's property
